

HB 836 -- Correctional Facility Produce Gardens

Sponsor: Guernsey

The Department of Corrections must require inmates to be responsible for a produce garden at every correctional facility or center in the state. The harvest must be used at the facility to supplement purchased food, with any remaining produce donated to local charitable organizations. The garden is not to be considered part of the vocational enterprise program but must be supported consistently with the support given to vocational industries.